Novice Competition Tune Requirements Novice class competitors will play three tunes, either [1] an air, followed by a pause, then a strathspey and a reel, or [2] a march, strathspey, and a reel played without pausing between tunes.”

This competition is sanctioned by Scottish F.I.R.E. Ltd and is conducted according to its rules. In addition to the Scottish F.I.R.E. official rules, the Judge may request that the slow tune be played once, that two-part tunes (marches, Strathspey, reels) be played twice, that four-part tunes be played once and may advise that tunes with a maximum of four parts be chosen.

Junior and Open Regional Competitors – Advancement to the National Competition:

Competitors designated by the Judge may be advanced to the U.S. National Scottish Fiddling Competition sponsored by Scottish F.I.R.E. New England Regional competitors who are advanced to the Nationals will be eligible to compete in 2023.

Notes to All Fiddle Competitors

Registration: Competitors are urged to register online via the New Hampshire Highland Games & Festival website. Competitors must sign in with their tune names and report to the Steward one half-hour before the posted competition time. Field entries are subject to a late entry fee of $10. Field entries for all competitors will be accepted up to one half-hour before the posted competition time if space permits.

A Note on Times: Competition and event times are approximate. Within each class, competitors will play in reverse order of registration (i.e., last to enter is first to play). EXCEPTION – the competitor who won the previous year may choose to play last regardless of when their entry was received.

Dress: The Fiddle Committee and the New Hampshire Highland Games & Festival request that all competitors dress in appropriate Scottish attire; for example - kilt, shirt and tie; dress with tartan sash; dark or tartan skirt or pants with white shirt or blouse and tartan tie, vest or sash.

Location: The fiddle competitions and events take place in the Children’s Center near the Governor Adams Lodge on the Games’ site.
