Curling

Octagon Lodge Patio
near Boyle's Break House

Curling is considered one of the oldest team sports and was played in Scotland and northern Europe as early as the 16th century. The sport was brought to Canada and other countries with winter climates, by Scottish emigrants, and was one of the first sports that was popular with women and girls. Here's your chance to Try It!

TRY IT DESCRIPTIONS

Drum Major: Billy Jordan	Parade Square	So you want to lead the band? This Try It class will help explain the essential roles of the Drum Major.
Gaelic Lessons: Ian Gauthier	TRY IT TENT Near Parade Square	Let's learn a bit of Scottish Gaelic together with Ian Gauthier of the Catamount Pipe Band! We have 45 minute classes for adults, or 30 minute kids classes. You may find yourself singing a tune in Gaelic by the end!
Harp: Peter Macaulay	Kinsman Room - Mountain Club	Touch-a-harp opportunities for adults and children on Saturday. Stop by and learn about these beautiful instruments.
Highland Dance: Shelley Stiles, Amy Holdsworth &amp; Beth LaBelle	TRY IT TENT Near Parade Square	Try a part of Scottish culture and appreciate the athleticism and art of the Highland dancer.
Mas-wrestling aka "Swingle Tree": Tony Robinson	Athletic TRY IT Area	A Highland test of strength, the Swingle Tree - Athletes sit in front of each other heel to heel, prop their feet against a wooden board, and pull on a stick.
Scottish Country Dance Workshop: Downeast Scottish Country Dancers	Octagon Lodge Patio	Follow the music and join in. The moves are called out and it's fun to take part and learn a bit about Scottish dancing!

SEMINARS & SPEAKERS

Carole Soule of Miles Smith Farm and the non-profit, Learning Networks Foundation

Carole returns this year on Friday and Sunday with her staff and their delightful and very friendly Scottish Highland coos. Stop by and visit them near Piper's Pub for a pat and maybe a photo or two. The cows are happy to pose with you.

Carole will also give two informal talks each day about the breed and will answer any questions you might have about life on the farm with Highland coos.

The Edinburgh Whisky Academy

Join our special guests from Scotland as they bring a wealth of whisky knowledge to the Games this year. If you are a Scotch whisky lover, this seminar is a "must see" on your day at the NH Highland Games. After hosting an intensive 2-day whisky diploma class before the Games, this seminar is a lighter take on whisky knowledge. Come and listen and ask questions.

Ron Collins - Scottish Genealogy Expert & Author

Explore your roots with Scottish Genealogy expert, Ron Collins. Ron will be sharing sources that will be useful in digging deeper in your family history.

Jacobite Risings in Song & Story

A music and history program called Jacobite Risings in Song & Story. As a Highlander sympathetic to Prince Charlie's cause, Charlie Zahm fills the program with history, music of the time, from the perspective of a true historical figure who actually fought in Prince Charlie's cause.

Charlie Zahm is an American singer and player of Celtic, maritime and traditional American music. Zahm sings baritone, and plays guitar, tin whistle, and the bodhran, among other instruments.

Collette Tours: NHSCOT Scotland Trip Travelogue from a previous NHSCOT trip to Scotland.

Experience Scotland first hand! Join NHSCOT June 11-20, 2023 as we Discover Scotland; or join us June 24 - July 5, 2023 as we explore Scotland: Isles of Lore & Legend. See our website (nhscot.org) for more information and itineraries.

Culinary Classes with Gary Maclean – Scotland's National Chef

This year Chef Gary Maclean will be cooking from his new cookbook - Scottish Kitchen Cookery Book Live including Glasgow Macaroon, Ayrshire Shortbread & Cranachan. He'll also be making Outlander inspired dishes and food from William Wallace Country. And he will host a NHSCOT Scotland Bound book club event with the story behind the definitive cookery book of Scottish Cookery. Gary's classes are always entertaining and are very popular at the Games!

Gary Maclean is a senior lecturer at City of Glasgow College and a MasterChef Professionals winner.
