The Open competition is for any fiddler aged 18 or over who has won first place in the Novice class three times or has competed previously in a Regional Open Scottish Fiddle event, or whose competency is considered equivalent to the above

Competition Tune Requirements: Competitors are required to play the following:

- a) An Air, Lament, Pastoral or other slow tune, followed by a pause, and
- b) A March, Strathspey & Reel played without pauses.

Novice Competition Tune Requirements Novice class competitors will play three tunes, either [1] an air, followed by a pause, then a strathspey and a reel, or [2] a march, strathspey, and a reel played without pausing between tunes.”

This competition is sanctioned by Scottish F.I.R.E. Ltd and is conducted according to its rules. In addition to the Scottish F.I.R.E. official rules, the Judge may request that the slow tune be played once, that two-part tunes (marches, Strathspey, reels) be played twice, that four-part tunes be played once and may advise that tunes with a maximum of four parts be chosen.

Junior and Open Regional Competitors – Advancement to the National Competition: Competitors designated by the Judge may be advanced to the U.S. National Scottish Fiddling Competition sponsored by Scottish F.I.R.E.

Notes to All Fiddle Competitors

Registration: Competitors are urged to register online via the New Hampshire Highland Games & Festival website. Competitors must sign in with their tune names and report to the Steward one half- hour before the posted competition time. Field entries are subject to a late entry fee of $10. Field entries for all competitors will be accepted up to one half-hour before the posted competition time if space permits.

Demonstration Entries: If desired, an individual may decide before the start of their competition level that they wish to play as a Demonstration only, not as a Competitor. The Demonstration entries will play first in their respective categories, before the Competitors. They will fill out the same registration forms and pay the same entrance fee as Competitors and will receive the same feedback form from the judge as the Competitors, but they will not be considered for competitive placement or prizes. Players will be asked to decide whether they are competing when they check in on competition day, and under no circumstances may a player change whether they are playing as a Demonstration or a Competitor after the start of the competition for which they are registered.

A Note on Times: Competition and event times are approximate. Within each class, competitors will play in reverse order of registration (i.e., last to enter is first to play). EXCEPTION – the competitor who won the previous year may choose to play last regardless of when their entry was received.

Dress: The Fiddle Committee and the New Hampshire Highland Games & Festival request that all competitors dress in appropriate Scottish attire; for example - kilt, shirt and tie; dress with tartan sash; dark or tartan skirt or pants with white shirt or blouse and tartan tie, vest or sash.

Location: The fiddle competitions and events take place in the Children's Center near the Governor Adams Lodge on the Games' site.

SPECIAL EVENTS FOR FIDDLERS

Fiddle Workshop: Sunday, September 20, 2026 @ 11:00 am – 12:15 pm

The Judge will conduct a fiddle workshop at the Children's Center open to competitors and non- competitors alike.

Fiddle Rally: Sunday, September 20, 2026 @ 12:15 pm

Following the workshop, all fiddlers may join in a public fiddle rally.

Please visit the New Hampshire Highland Games & Festival, (www.nhscot.org), for the complete schedule of fiddle events and performances by the Judge(s).
