SEMINARS & SPEAKERS

CAROLE SOULE

of Miles Smith Farm and the non-profit, Learning
Networks Foundation

Carole returns this year on Friday and Sunday with her staff and their delightful and very friendly Scottish Highland coos. Stop by and visit them near Piper's Pub for a pat and maybe a photo or two. The cows are happy to pose with you.

Carole will also give two informal talks each day about the breed and will answer any questions you might have about life on the farm with Highland coos.

LAURA GOODMAN

Laura Goodman is a professional historian, guide, and storyteller from Scotland you won't want to miss! A favorite of the NHSCOT staff, Laura will enthrall you with tales of long ago Scotland. Who would believe history could be so entertaining?! Seminar stories include - "Why you should never accept a whisky from an Irishman in a Scottish pub." and "The Curse of the Stewarts, a true tale of a dysfunctional royal family."

SEMINARS & SPEAKERS

DAVID S. BRODY

David S. Brody is a 10-time Amazon #1 Bestselling fiction writer with over half a million books sold. His children call him a “rock nerd” because of the time he spends studying ancient stone structures which he believes evidence exploration of America before Columbus. He has served as a Director of NEARA (New England Antiquities Research Association) and has appeared as a guest expert on documentaries airing on History Channel, Travel Channel, PBS and Discovery Channel. A graduate of Tufts University and Georgetown Law School, he was raised in Laconia, NH and currently resides in Newburyport, MA with his wife, sculptor Kimberly Scott.

Templars, Nazis and the Holy Grail

The Ghent Altarpiece painting is the most stolen piece of artwork in world history. During World War II, the Nazis pilfered it, believing that the painting's Knights Templar symbology and iconography were encrypted clues leading to the Holy Grail and other lost Templar treasures. Why were the Nazis convinced the trail led through Scotland? And does the answer help lead us find the lost Templar treasure?

Exploration of America Before Columbus

Numerous artifacts and sites around New England offer evidence of exploration of North America before Columbus. Specifically, the artifacts seem to confirm the legend of a group of Scottish explorers, with ties to the outlawed Knights Templar, island-hopping their way across the North Atlantic in the late 1300s. Who were they, and why did they come? Well, that's where the fun begins.

CHARLIE ZAHM

Charlie Zahm is an American singer and player of Celtic, maritime and traditional American music. Zahm sings baritone, and plays guitar, tin whistle, and the bodhran, among other instruments.

SEMINARS & SPEAKERS

THE MARCH OF THE CAMERON MEN: A TRIBUTE TO THE 79TH NEW YORK HIGHLANDER

A one-man show following this gallant Scottish-American regiment through some of the most grueling campaigns of the Union effort in the American Civil War. Singer, multi-instrumentalist and historian Charlie Zahm assumes the persona of Scottish-born Captain Joseph Laing through the regiment's three-year enlistment, in a thrilling history filled with period story and song following these well-traveled soldiers from their march down Broadway in June of 1861 answering the call of "Father Abraham," through their final engagement at Spotsylvania in 1864 once again driving Longstreet's Confederates from the field. A story of Scottish immigration, dedication, and bravery, this tribute to the 79th is not to be missed!

COLLETTE TOURS: NHSCOT SCOTLAND TRIP

Travelogue from a previous NHSCOT trip to Scotland

Experience Scotland first hand! Join NHSCOT August 6-15, 2024 as we Discover Scotland. Our trip culminates with a visit to the spectacular Edinburgh Military Tattoo at Edinburgh Castle. See our website (nhscot.org) for more information and itinerary.

CULINARY CLASSES WITH GARY MACLEAN

Scotland's National Chef

Gary Maclean is a senior lecturer at City of Glasgow College, a MasterChef Professionals winner, and the National Chef of Scotland.

This year Chef Gary Maclean will be cooking from his new cookbook - Scottish Kitchen Cookery Book Live including Forfar Bridies, traditional shortbread and clams with bacon and kale. He'll also be making Outlander inspired dishes during his "A Taste of Outlander" seminar. Gary's classes are always entertaining and are very popular at the Games!
