SEMINARS & SPEAKERS

CAROLE SOULE of Miles Smith Farm and the non-profit, Learning Networks Foundation

Carole returns this year on Friday and Sunday with her staff and their delightful and very friendly Scottish Highland coos. Stop by and visit them near Piper's Pub for a pat and maybe a photo or two. The cows are happy to pose with you.

Carole will also give two informal talks each day about the breed and will answer any questions you might have about life on the farm with Highland coos.

COINNEACH MACLEOD, The Hebridean Baker

International best-selling author Coinneach MacLeod, the Hebridean Baker was born and raised on the beautiful island of Lewis, the most northerly of the Outer Hebrides of Scotland. Inspired by family recipes, Scottish flavours and the myths & legends of the Hebrides, his three cookbooks have made him Scotland's best-selling cookbook author.

Join the Hebridean Baker as he shares the best stories, recipes and songs from Scotland, and brings a wee bit of the Scottish islands to New Hampshire.

ROSS MCEWEN

By profession a subject specialist in Freedom of Information law and practice and a former University Lecturer, Ross's burgeoning second career in the Scottish Clan space increasingly involves speaking and advocating for the health and prosperity of Clan culture in Scotland and overseas, providing advice and support to Clan Chiefs, Societies and the public on matters pertaining to engagement, governance, ceremonial, and heraldry, as well as the role and functions of the Court of the Lord Lyon.

This seminar will engage an audience in the enchanting and engaging world of Scotland's Clans as a 21st century global entity, how and why Scots Heraldry now stands as the 'last law standing' as it relates to the recognition of Clans, and is vital for the recognition of Clan Chiefs, and information on how Clan members around the world can further engage with these areas of culture, enjoy them, and help preserve them for centuries to come, as well as dispelling some of the most misleading myths surrounding Scottish Clans, Heraldry, and everything in between.

CHRISTINA SINCLAIR, Executive Director of Edinburgh World Heritage

Holding UNESCO World Heritage Status, The Old and New Towns of Edinburgh are blessed with a rich tapestry of scenery, structures and stories, each intrinsic to its identity. Join Director Christina Sinclair to explore the history of The Old and New Towns and the important work being carried out by Edinburgh World Heritage.

SEMINARS & SPEAKERS

BISHOP BURNHAM HALL

Bishop Burnham Hall, after 40 years of ministry and leadership as a Pentecostal churchman, discovered his quest for God led him to embrace a living faith epitomized by ancient Celtic Christianity, which he describes as the purest expression of church life outside of the Acts of the Apostles.

In the modern age, there's been a resurgence in something often referred to as Celtic Christianity. The unique ancient experience of Celtic Christians inspires many seeking something fresh and authentic. On the western coast of Scotland, the tiny island of Iona became the hub from which much of western Christendom owes its very existence.

DAVID S. BRODY

David is a 10-time Amazon #1 Bestselling fiction writer with over half a million books sold. His children call him a "rock nerd" because of the time he spends studying ancient stone structures which he believes is evidence of exploration of America before Columbus. He has served as a Director of NEARA (New England Antiquities Research Association) and has appeared as a guest expert on documentaries airing on History Channel, Travel Channel, PBS and Discovery Channel. A graduate of Tufts University and Georgetown Law School, he was raised in Laconia, NH and currently resides in Newburyport, MA with his wife, sculptor Kimberly Scott.

QUEEN SCOTA

Who else but David Brody could weave a tale of Scottish history, Princess Diana, the royal family along with the U.S. Declaration of Independence?

PRINCE HENRY SINCLAIR & THE EXPLORATION OF AMERICA BEFORE COLUMBUS

Numerous artifacts and sites around New England offer evidence of exploration of North America before Columbus. Specifically, the artifacts seem to confirm the legend of a group of Scottish explorers, with ties to the outlawed Knights Templar, island-hopping their way across the North Atlantic in the late 1300s. Who were they, and why did they come? Well, that's where the fun begins.

CHARLIE ZAHM

Charlie Zahm is an American singer and player of Celtic, maritime and traditional American music. Zahm sings baritone, and plays guitar, tin whistle, and the bodhran, among other instruments.

Join singer and history-lover Charlie Zahm for an hour of the GREAT songs of Scotland past and the stories behind those songs...Bonnie Prince Charlie, The Massacre of Glencoe, the Flower of Scotland, the Bonnets of Bonnie Dundee, the great songs of Robert Burns, and so many more! Sometimes the stories of the songs are every bit as magical as the songs themselves---sung by a man who has been performing them all his life.

SEMINARS & SPEAKERS

COLLETTE TOURS: NHSCOT SCOTLAND TRIP

Presented by Andrew Leighton, Collette Tours and Sandy Delude, NHSCOT Travel Professional. Experience Scotland first hand! Join NHSCOT June 23 – July 2, 2025 as we Discover Scotland.

GARY MACLEAN, Scotland's National Chef

Gary is a senior lecturer at City of Glasgow College and a MasterChef: The Professionals Champion.

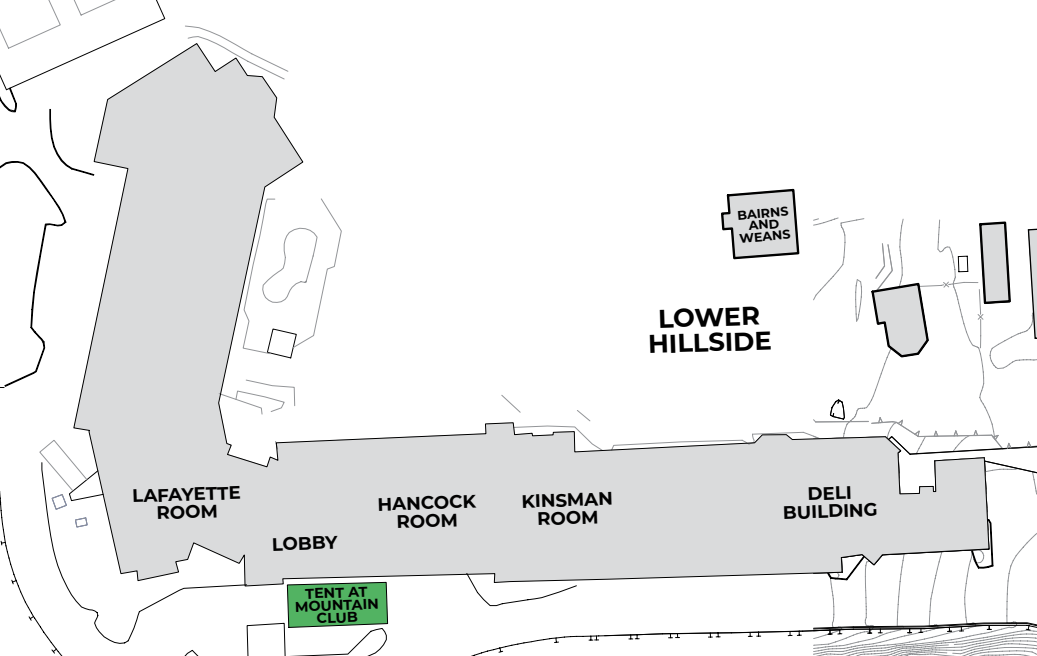

Join Scotland's national chef for a special Still Game TV show themed demonstration. From traditional Scottish dishes like Ginger Snap cookies and Empire biscuits and a modern twist on Haggis, this demo will have you laughing and enjoying the best of Scottish cuisine. Then, immerse yourself in the flavours of the sea with a Scottish seafood demonstration. From fresh scallops to succulent langoustines, Scotland's national chef will showcase the best of Scottish seafood and teach you how to create delicious dishes that celebrate the Scotland's amazing coasts.

Finally, celebrate the rich tradition of Scottish festivities from Burns Night to Hogmanay, Scotland's national chef will share recipes and tips for creating authentic dishes that are perfect for any Scottish celebration. Learn how to cook up a feast fit for a ceilidh and impress your friends with your newfound culinary skills.
