Gary will be showcasing simple, delicious Scottish dishes while sharing stories and tips along the way. Whether you're new to Scottish food or already a fan, these sessions are a great chance to learn more and see some fantastic recipes come to life.

DAVID S. BRODY

David is a 10-time Amazon #1 Bestselling fiction writer with over half a million books sold. His children call him a "rock nerd" because of the time he spends studying ancient stone structures which he believes is evidence of exploration of America before Columbus. He has served as a Director of NEARA (New England Antiquities Research Association) and has appeared as a guest expert on documentaries airing on History Channel, Travel Channel, PBS and Discovery Channel. A graduate of Tufts University and Georgetown Law School, he was raised in Laconia, NH and currently resides in Newburyport, MA with his wife, sculptor Kimberly Scott.

Queen Scots: Who else but David Brody could weave a tale of Scottish history, Princess Diana, the royal family along with the U.S. Declaration of Independence?

Prince Henry Sinclair and the Exploration of America Before Columbus: Numerous artifacts and sites around New England offer evidence of exploration of North America before Columbus. Specifically, the artifacts seem to confirm the legend of a group of Scottish explorers, with ties to the outlawed Knights Templar, island-hopping their way across the North Atlantic in the late 1300s. Who were they, and why did they come? Well, that's where the fun begins.
